AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

The defendants City of Mosinee, Wisconsin, and Kenneth Grams separately

affirmatively allege and show to the Court the following affirmative defenses:

- A. That the plaintiffs' Complaint may fail to state a claim upon which relief may be granted against these defendants.
- B. That any claim for punitive damages against the municipality may be barred as a matter of law by City of Newport v. Fact Concerts, Inc., 453 U.S. 297 (1981) or state law.
- C. That to the extent the complaint may be alleging a Monell claim against the City of Mosinee or Kenneth Grams; the complaint fails to sufficiently identify any unconstitutional policy practice or custom of the City of Mosinee.
- D. That any direct claim against the City of Mosinee or Chief Grams based on respondeat superior for the alleged actions of its employee or other officers is barred as a matter of law.
- E. That at all times relevant to this lawsuit these answering defendants' actions were reasonable and proper under the United States Constitution, federal and State law, and further any arrest of the plaintiff was supported by probable cause and was reasonable and constitutional.
- F. That to the extent the Complaint fails to state unconstitutional action or omission on the part of Officer Krause or Chief Grams, there can be no liability for the defendant City of Mosinee.
- G. That at all times relevant to this lawsuit the actions of law enforcement officers with the City of Mosinee were objectively reasonable, in good faith, and consistent with the laws and Constitutions of the United States and State of Wisconsin.
- H. That any individual claims against Officer Krause or Chief Grams may be entitled to qualified immunity.

I. That the ordinances, policies, practices, and procedures of the City of Mosinee were and are constitutionally proper exercises of the police powers afforded to the City of Mosinee by state law, to protect the health, safety, and welfare of its citizens.

J. That the defendant Kenneth Grams was not Chief of Police at the time the material allegations of the investigation and arrest were made and therefore had no direct supervisory authority or involvement in those decisions or actions by other officers.

K. That the Complaint fails as a matter of law to identify or establish any equal protection violation of these answering defendants and should be summarily dismissed.

L. That at no time were the actions of these answering defendants or Officer Krause motivated by evil intent, malice or deliberate indifference, nor did any exercise reckless or callous indifference towards the plaintiffs or any of the plaintiffs' rights.

M. That these answering defendants' actions and Officer Krause were supported by probable cause and consistent with Due Process and Equal Protection.

N. That that plaintiffs' claims and damages may be the result of their own actions for which these answering defendants are not responsible.

O. That the plaintiffs may have failed to mitigate their damages.

P. That the plaintiffs' claims and claimed damages may be the result of the actions of third parties for which these defendants are not liable.

Q. That the plaintiff is not entitled to any compensatory or punitive damages against these answering defendants.

R. That to the extent the Complaint is alleging state law claims against these defendants, such claims may be barred by failure to comply with the notice provisions of Wis. Stat. § 893.80(1d), and may be subject to state law governmental immunity or damage limitations under Wis. Stat. § 893.80(3) & (4), and municipal immunity for intentional torts.

S. That these defendants reserve the right to raise additional Affirmative Defenses based on information or facts disclosed or uncovered prior to the time of trial.

WHEREFORE, the defendants City of Mosinee, Wisconsin, and Kenneth Grams, demand judgment dismissing the plaintiffs' Complaint and all claims against them and for an award of attorney fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988, costs and disbursements together with such other and further relief as the Court deems just and equitable.
